

English

*Focus on forming written sentences- Harvey Slumfenburger's Christmas Present- John Burningham.

*To learn features of labels, lists, descriptive writing- Being detectives!

*Fantasy writing-To learn about the structure of non-fiction texts and compare to fiction.

*Traditional Rhymes

*Poetry-writing own poems/lists about what they love and hate.

Computing

*Word processing

-Looking at different functions of word.

-Practicing the use of word processor.

Humanities

(Geography/History)

*Weather in the UK

*Fieldwork- Looking at our local area and environment. Local Farm Visit

*Personal Timelines/ Family Trees

*Comparing old and new. I.E. Toys, Houses etc...

Art and DT

*Andy Goldsworthy

*Investigating colour

*Autumn Art

*Food technology

-Creating fruit salads

-Healthy Smoothies

-Healthy Food

Puffins Topic Web

Autumn

Science

*Animals including humans.

- Look at how we've changed.

- Look at our bodies

- Senses

-Herbivores, Carnivores, omnivores

-Pets

Maths

*Mental Addition- Using the method of partitioning.

*Recognise coins, finding total of money.

Read the time (o'clock/half past).

*Estimate, measure and compare objects/shapes.

*recognise and read numbers to 100 in ones and tens.

*Doubling and halving, adding, take away, more or less than, number bonds to 10.

Music

* Exploring sounds

*Exploring Duration

*Day and Night and musical elements.

PE

*Invasion Games: small and large ball skills

*Dance

*Gymnastics

RE/PSHE

*Ourselves and Belonging

*Baptism

*All about me- Healthy lifestyle

*Thinking about Others.